

States of Incarceration: A National Dialogue of Local Histories

Contact Information for Interviews

Liz Sevcenko

Director, Humanities Action Lab

The New School

212.229.5800 x2085

917.450.8696 (mobile)

sevcenkl@newschool.edu

Spokesperson for the States of Incarceration (SOI) project, its goals, origins, future plans

Glenn E. Martin

Founder and President, JustLeadershipUSA

glenn@justleadershipusa.org

Formerly incarcerated leader in criminal justice reform and the movement to close Rikers Island, speaker at the national launch on April 14, advisor to SOI

Dr. Heather Ann Thompson

Professor of History, University of Michigan

704.968.6595

hthompson@umich.edu

Historian and author of Blood in the Water: The Attica Uprising of 1971 and its Legacy, speaker at the national conference, April 16; advisor to SOI

Khalil Gibran Muhammad, Ph.D.

Professor of History, Race, and Public Policy, Harvard Kennedy School

Director, Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, New York Public Library

212.491.2263

khalilmuhammad@nypl.org

Historian and author of The Condemnation of Blackness: Race, Crime, and the Making of Modern Urban America, speaker at the national conference, April 15

Radhika Subramanian

Director/Chief Curator, Sheila C. Johnson Design Center

Asst. Professor, School of Art and Design History and Theory

Parsons School of Design, The New School

212.229.8919 x4385

rsubramaniam@newschool.edu

Director of the New School gallery showing the exhibition, and professor of the New School class that created the exhibit module about Rikers Island