Reading Schedule

Week 1:

- Introduction to the project (statesofincarceration.org)
- Liz Sevcenko, “Remembering the Age of Mass Incarceration”

Week 2:

Guest speaker (community partner)

- Michel Foucault, “Panopticism,” from Discipline and Punish
- Michael Kimmelman, “Prison Architecture and the Question of Ethics

Week 3:

- Nicholas P. de Genova, “Migrant ‘Illegality’ and Deportability in Everyday Life,” Annual Review of Anthropology
- Aviva Chomsky, Undocumented: How Immigration Became Illegal

Week 4:

Week 5:

- Nicholas DeGenove, “Introduction,” and Galina Cornelis, “Immigration Detention and the Territoriality of Universal Rights,” The Deportation Regime (Intro and Ch. 2)
States of Incarceration
Sample Syllabus
Local focus: Immigration Detention

Week 6

- Explore Spatial Information Design Lab and Justice Mapping Center digital mass incarceration mapping project: http://spatialinformationdesignlab.org/projects/million-dollar-blocks

Week 7
Guest Speaker

- Alfonso Gonzales, Reform without Justice (Intro, Ch 1 and 4)

Week 8

- Mary Bosworth, “Subjectivity and Identity in Detention: Punishment and Society in a Global Age,” Theoretical Criminology

Week 9

- Mark Dow, American Gulag: Inside US Immigration Prisons
- http://www.davidbreston.com/prisonmap

Week 10-15

- This time is reserved for local story archival research, creating and designing exhibit contributions, and incorporating scholarly feedback